

Kite Festival

The tradition of kite flying has been followed over generations in our society. Makar Sankranti is marked with all fun and fervor with people from all generations trying hands on kite flying. This year, The ICFAI University, Jaipur celebrated this festival with immense enthusiasm. All the students and faculty members participated in kite flying and spent a good time together narrowing the classroom boundaries. Kites, music, and delicacies added to the charm and celebration.