Soft Skills and Language Lab

Date: 22nd August 2025

Topic: Soft Skills and Language Lab

Resource Person: Dr. Sugandha Verma

Objective

The session aimed to acquaint newly admitted students with the significance of soft skills in complementing hard skills and domain-specific knowledge. It was designed to help students understand how effective communication, emotional intelligence, and interpersonal abilities contribute to professional success, alongside technical expertise. The objective was also to instill qualities such as leadership, self-confidence, consistency, values, ethics, and integrity in the students as part of their holistic development.

Session Highlights

- Understanding Hard Skills and Domain Skills: Students were introduced to the difference between technical expertise (hard skills) and subject knowledge (domain skills), and how these are necessary but incomplete without strong soft skills.
- List and Importance of Soft Skills: Dr. Verma emphasized key soft skills such as:
  - Communication
  - Empathy
  - Networking
  - Problem-solving and troubleshooting
  - Leadership
  - Consistency
- Time Management: The concept of prioritization was discussed with reference to the famous "Eat That Frog" book, highlighting practical strategies for efficient time management.
- Quality of Leadership: Different leadership styles were illustrated through examples of renowned figures:
  - Narendra Modi – as a visionary and strategic leader
  - Adolf Hitler – as a cautionary example of authoritarian leadership
  - M.S. Dhoni – admired as "Captain Cool" for his calm and composed leadership
- Self-Confidence and Consistency: Students were encouraged to believe in their potential, develop persistence, and maintain consistent efforts toward goals.
- Values, Ethics, and Integrity: The importance of personal and professional integrity, adherence to values, and ethical conduct in shaping character and career was underscored.

Outcome

- Students developed an understanding of how soft skills enhance employability and prepare them for real-world challenges beyond academic knowledge.
- They recognized the role of leadership, empathy, and communication in building effective teams and professional networks.

- Awareness was created on time management techniques, motivating students to adopt discipline and prioritization in their academic journey.
- The session fostered self-reflection, enabling students to appreciate the interconnectedness of skills, values, and personal growth for holistic development.
- Overall, the session successfully inspired students to pursue not only academic excellence but also personal growth through ethics, consistency, and confidence.
