The Cultural and Literary Club, ICFAI School of Liberal Arts organized a 'Movie Screening and Review' on Wednesday, September 18, 2024. The movie screened was 'NEWTON' (2017). It is a story of a government servant who is sent to a politically sensitive area of central India on election duty. After the movie, there was a brief discussion on the movie. Student views and responses were elicited. Students observed the significance of being honest in daily life. Honesty, patience and perseverance are virtues that is to be instilled in the minds and actions of students, as opined by faculty. Students were oriented to procedures, processes and methods in conducting elections. Students were sensitized to problems of conducting elections in conflict ridden zones. The message of the movie held that the power of ballot holds greater value than power of bullet.

The event was coordinated by Dr Mathew Sinu Simon, Faculty member of Cultural Club and Literary Club of ISLA, along with student coordinator Mr. Sameer Kumawat.
