
ICFAI Law School Premier League 2024 – Season 1

Venue: Cricket Ground, The ICFAI University, Jaipur

Event: Inter-Batch Cricket Tournament

Date: 17 Oct 2024 - 23 Oct 2024

Day 1 – 17th October

The ILS Premier League Season 1 kicked off with an electrifying opening ceremony. Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) HP Singh, VSM, Vice-Chancellor, The ICFAI University, Jaipur, inaugurated the event with an inspiring address, followed by a tribute to the nation with the National Anthem and then the unveiling of the trophies for the tournament, setting the stage for an intense 5-day competition with 6 Teams.

The First Match

The first match was between Desert Tigers (1st year Team B) and Kumbalgarh Fighters (4th year). The Tigers batted second and managed only 52 runs, unable to claw the Fighters' total of 101 runs. Rahul Sharma was the star, scoring 68 runs and earning the Man of the Match title.

Day 2 – 18th October

Day two featured intense action with two gripping matches.

Day 2 - Match 1

In the first match, Aravali Royals (5th year) couldn't chase down the Lake City Legends' (3rd year) score of 66 runs, falling short at 62 runs.

Mohit Sharma was named Man of the Match.

Day 2 - Match 2

The second clash was between Chhattisgarh Champions (1st year Team A) and Amer Avengers (2nd year). The Champions gave it their best but couldn't assemble the score like the Avengers' 85 runs, wrapping up their innings at 73 runs.

Mirza Rihan Baig was declared Man of the Match.

Day 3 – 21st October

After intense battles, four teams—2nd year, 3rd year, 4th year, and 5th year—secured their spots in the semi-finals. Although 5th year lost its match in the previous round, it advanced due to a superior net run rate. Unfortunately, both 1st year teams (A and B) were eliminated in the first round, failing to make it to the semi-finals.

The third day brought high stakes with the much-anticipated semi-finals and the grand finale.

1st Semi-Final:

Amer Avengers (2nd year) vs. Kumbalgarh Fighters (4th year)

The Fighters, batting first, set a target of 88 runs. However, the Avengers chased it comfortably in 9.1 overs, securing their place in the final.

Parikshit was awarded Man of the Match.

Day 4 – 22nd October

Getting closer and closer to the finals, everyone was at the edge of their seats, imagining a victory in their heads.

2nd Semi-Final:

Lake City Legends (3rd year) vs. Aravali Royals (5th year)

The Royals couldn't surpass the Legends' score of 85 runs, finishing with 64 runs.

Om Pathak earned the Man of the Match title for his performance.

Day 5 – 23rd October

Before the final match, a friendly exhibition game between faculty and students adding a little fun and excitement to the event. Sponsors were honoured with a firework display, marking their contribution to the event

Final Match

All roads led to the grand finale, where the two fierce teams – Lake City Legends (3rd year) and Amer Avengers (2nd year) – faced off for ultimate glory. With everything on the line, only one could emerge victorious.

In the championship showdown, Lake City Legends (3rd year) batted first, scoring 98 runs. The marvellous Avengers (2nd year) couldn't handle the pressure and were all out at 50 runs, making the Legends, the champions of Season 1.

Om Kumar Pathak stole the spotlight by taking 7 wickets and was awarded Man of the Match for his stunning performance.

Day 5 – Concluding Ceremony

Respected Registrar sir, Dr. R Nesamoorthy presided over the closing ceremony, acknowledging outstanding contributions and honouring the winners and runner-ups. The Amer Avengers (2nd year) received silver medals and the runner-up trophy, while the Lake City Legends (3rd year) received gold medals and the winner's trophy.

Mirza Rihan Baig was named Man of the Tournament for his brilliant run – taking down 11 wickets and scoring 30 runs across the event.

Amongst all this, not forgetting the special mentions, Dr. R Nesamoorthy appreciated the umpires, anchors, and commentators for their active participation and Om Kumar Saini for his remarkable event management.

The ILS Premier League 2024 concluded on a high note with a fireworks display and lively music, keeping the participants and the audience eagerly looking forward to future seasons.

Come, witness the battle between your law titans.
