

Report on the Demo Session of Client Counselling Competition

Date: 16th October 2024

Venue: Seminar Hall 016

The Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) Committee of ICFAI Law School, The ICFAI University, Jaipur, organized a demo session to introduce law students from the 1st to 3rd year to the various ADR mechanisms, with a specific focus on client counselling. This session aimed to familiarize students with the objectives, structure, and functioning of the ADR Committee while providing practical insights into client counselling techniques.

The session commenced at 2:30 pm with an introductory speech by the Secretary and Joint Secretary of the ADR Committee, who elaborated on the committee's mission, activities, and significance in promoting alternative dispute resolution methods. Following this, the committee members were formally introduced to the students, helping them understand the roles and responsibilities of each member.

A detailed presentation on the client counselling mechanism was delivered by Ms. Hiya Karamchandani and Ms. Neetu Wadhvani. The presentation highlighted the importance of client counselling in ADR and outlined key strategies and techniques used in effectively managing client relationships.

Following the presentation, a live demonstration of a client counselling session was conducted by the committee members. This practical demonstration offered students an insightful look into real-world applications of client counselling, showcasing how ADR mechanisms operate in a professional setting. The demo was designed to give students a clear understanding of the process and the skills required to successfully counsel a client.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Vijit Singh, the Faculty Coordinator of the ADR Committee, who emphasized the importance of student participation in such activities and encouraged further involvement in ADR initiatives. The session was an enriching experience for all attendees, providing them with both theoretical knowledge and practical exposure to client counselling.
