

Ms. Sangeeta Kumari
B.Tech (CSE), M.Tech
Assistant Professor

Sangeeta Kumari, B.Tech (CSE), M.Tech, is an Assistant Professor with eight years of experience in teaching and academic engagement. She has cleared Haryana Teacher Eligibility Test (HTET), further validating her qualifications and expertise. She has authored two research papers published in prestigious international journals and has actively participated in various Faculty Development Programs. Demonstrating a strong commitment to academic growth, she regularly engages in workshops, seminars, and conferences, contributing to the advancement of her field. With a solid foundation in computer science and engineering, her expertise lies in fostering student learning and staying abreast of emerging technological trends. Through her dedication to professional development, research, and academic excellence, she plays a pivotal role in both her institution and the broader academic community.

