

Mr. Neeraj Manglani
M.Tech,B.Tech (CSE)
Assistant Professor

Mr. Neeraj Manglani, an Assistant Professor with a B.Tech in Computer Science and an M.Tech, has 15 years of academic experience and one year in the industry. His research focuses on networking, with 12 papers published in international journals and five presented at international conferences. He has attended four Faculty Development Programs and eight national-level conferences. Actively engaged in academia, he has participated in numerous workshops, seminars, and conferences. His dedication to research and professional development reflects his commitment to advancing knowledge in networking and fostering academic growth among students and peers.

