

Ms. Rekha Sharma

Ph.D.(Persuing), M.Tech. (CSE),
B.Tech(CSE),SET(Qualified).

Assistant Professor

Ms. Rekha Sharma is an educator and researcher with 10 years of rich teaching experience in the field of Computer Science and Engineering. Currently pursuing a Ph.D., her research framework focuses on the intersections of Image Processing, Machine Learning algorithms, and Neural Networks.

To date, she has made significant contributions to the scholarly community, including an authored textbook on Data Structures using C/C++, 5 papers presented at recognized international conferences (scopus indexed), and a high-impact paper featured in a prestigious Q1 journals. She remains dedicated to advancing automated intelligence systems while shaping the next generation of computing professionals.

