PROF (DR) H P SINGH, VSM

From the President's Desk Greetings!

I am happy to learn that the fifth edition of "Prowess" is ready to be launched with a theme of 'Mischief Managed'.

IBS, as an integral school of the University, has been in the forefront of embracing the latest pedagogies & teacher-learner centered conceptual framework & necessary skill sets. It has commenced sourcing industry experts as faculty in the domains of Marketing, Finance & HR as "Professors of Practice", in order to include the industry perspective & integrate the industry inputs into the course curriculum so as to have the students industry ready with the right kind of skills.

IBS is genuinely engaged in empowering its students by providing them the right kind of exposure & opportunities for developing leadership qualities. The establishment of Student Council and dynamic nature of various club activities through the right kind of mentorship are yielding desired dividends for the student fraternity. The conduct of various conferences, Conclaves & workshops with the due participation of the students has been a matter of great satisfaction and pride.

I am very pleased to note that the fifth edition of the "Prowess" is devoted to the outgoing class of MBA - 2021-2023. I have been particularly impressed with the students of this batch for their incredible performance as functionaries of Student council, their keen interest & passionate involvement in various club activities, their participation in University level programs bringing life & cheers to one and all in the campus, their inspiring performance in the internship program, their mentorship of UG Students in IBS & laudable achievement in terms of quality placements. Obviously the Mischief was managed well in the School. My best wishes to the students for their bright & fulfilling careers & happiness for ever.

I hope the readers will find the 5th edition of Prowess interesting and worth reading.

Best Wishes,

Jai Hind

From the Dean's Desk - Dr Shweta Jain

To all our partners and well-wishers,

With mixed emotions, we bring to you this very special edition of "Prowess".

I'm sure "Mischief Managed...", that sounds like an out of the ordinary theme for a campus magazine, instantly brings an inquisitive smile to your hearts, the way it does to ours! These couple of years with the MBA Class of 2023 have been an amazing journey, nothing less than a roller coaster ride.

From witnessing these bright faces over those few inches "limited" screens to watching them rushing through the corridors, that "unlimited" crazy busy-ness across all corners of the campus... it has been a sight to proudly cherish all those extraordinary achievements of this batch!

We experienced everything with this batch... yearning to be on campus... welcoming the good times being back at campus... rigorous learning within and beyond the classrooms, that amazing spirit of conquest and camaraderie on the sports ground, incredible teamwork during scores of club activities, management conclaves, capacity building workshops, corporate engagements, business & cultural fests, grand events and contributions to the larger community with the noble initiatives these student executives pulled off wonderfully well... "man-amaze-ment" indeed!

Placements for the Class of 2023 came as a glorious fruition of our relentless efforts and unswerving commitment across the years. As these young talents take a big step towards future, all we have is... blessings in our hearts, and bright hopes that they'll come back to us, visit their alma mater on all occasions that life allows them to... share their stories and hard-won wisdom with the students yet to start here.

To this very special Class of 2023! Cheers to life and its amazing lessons!

Best wishes.

From the Associate Dean

- Dr Archana Rathore

"We started with fear, sailed through personal and professional gear and ended with happy tears."

Let me start by offering my congratulations to MBA Class of 2023 on their program completion.

Although the journey of this batch started with the unprecedented times of lockdown, with the blessing of the Almighty you have come off with flying colors. As you enter into the corporate world, we wish that each one of you become competent business managers who are also principally valued leaders. Stick to your core values, respect people in your surroundings, contribute to nation building, keep your eyes on stars and always be grounded.

Message from Faculty Editorial

- Dr 'S'hivangani Rathore

"Today's moments, tomorrow's memories eventually we will all be old faces in the photograph"

Dear Readers,

This edition of the magazine, "Prowess Volume V -Mischief Managed" is a tribute to our outgoing batch. Class of 2023 journey started from 17 inches screen with monotonous backgrounds (same pink & red walls, same couches....) & progress towards intriguing campus life. They have set a culture of empowerment, entrustment and enablement which would be carried forward as legacy by their juniors.

Our 'S' Squad team has always been a matter of prestige and rejoice. With every edition, they have sculpted Prowess with new looks and perspectives.

I hope you all will enjoy reading this edition "Mischief Managed". Memories to Cherish and Relish...

Happy Reading!!!

The 'S'quad

for one last time

'S'ourav Chauhan

“Why Us?”

I've always been a critic, an add-itor by identity. Sometimes augmented, many times nerve wrecking for the other parties involved, the trait has bought both praise and gaze.

Flashback to October 2021 when I, along with Samrat, got a call from the Dean's Office. With both emotions of question and query, I had no idea that was a start to something that'll be so close to heart. Looking back today, I still sometimes ponder, "Why Me?", followed by a "Why Not"!!

I've constantly reinstated, for me, 'Prowess' isn't just a magazine, it's an Expression. This endeavor facilitated experimentation, stewardship, synergy and above all, entrustment. Garnering the vivid images to paint the canvas with my own colors, brushes and strokes, the experience has been overwhelming. Words have been my ally and cognizance my curator, for that's the echo of my voice.

Gratitude and appreciation are all I have.

'S'amrat Dutta

“Why Not?”

As the curtains call on this journey, there is nothing but ecstasy to express. Beyond all badal, the memories are the ones that would stay.

Seems like yesterday that I got called into the Dean's Office unbeknownst the outcome. The butterflies? Dancing to the tune of 'Sound of Silence'. She looks at me warmly and says, "Samrat. This is your responsibility!"

The chord that was struck on that day, has been reinforced with endless vigor by the success of the last two volumes under the 'S'quad's stewardship.

The elation of those ten minutes of joy once the first prints come in, the 2 AM black coffees that kept the online discussions on track, the LinkedIn feed getting filled with bravado, I leave Prowess with the hope that the baby has grown up and will forever continue to do so.

The marauder's map gives the holder the power to have a clean slate or at least it did so in the mystical world of Mr. Potter.

Looking at it, is it that very different from what we humans do in our lives? Always seeking out that elixir that gives you a free pass to begin again, the reset button will forever be elusive to some.

For us, the outgoing class of MBA graduates, our reset button is here!

Having hopped and skipped our way through these two years that in hindsight seems like those quick disappearing steps of Severus Snape on the map, we now stand at the doorway of our own reset buttons.

As we leave academia, albeit for the time-being and spread out into the vast manifold of the corporate world, we hold a clean slate. The onus lies on holders to build their empires.

The seats that we sat on will have a new acquaintance, the nameplates will not read 'Class of 2023' anymore, the halls will have new faces, all process teams will be rebuilt, but this temple of learning will stay.

This issue is a commemoration to all who called these grounds their home for the past two years, a well-selected assortment of memoirs to hold on to, an ode to the outgoing batch and their accomplishments.

For now, before stowing it away for someone else to come and search for it, we wave the wand on the dusty old roadmap and say, 'Mischief Managed'!

FOR THE Registrar

Being the custodian of all academic goals and targets all the while adhering to compliance and regulatory requirements, that too for a cohort of over a thousand students is no easy feat.

The office of the registrar has always required consistency and transparency of the highest order.

At The ICFAl University, Jaipur, Col. (Retd) Sanjiv Banerjee has left no stone unturned to maximise academic and student activity efforts at campus. A man of exemplary leadership, he has always commanded the respect of the entire team that is dedicated to student empowerment and enablement at campus; may that be administrative or the academic wing.

His ethos, having served his Nation has been unshakeable throughout his tenure catering to this esteemed office. His skills, honed through his battle tested approach coupled with his impeccable communication has indeed set a benchmark for the office that would be hard to replicate.

As we ready ourselves to walk through these gates for one last time, we, the outgoing class, recognize his Prowess and wish him the best of health and luck for the days to come.

FOR JEETU BHAIYA

He's omnipresent, he's always on his toes. During any crisis, this is the first name that comes to mind. Jeetu bhaiya is the essence of the campus. Be it his famous tea or the constant smile on his face, he is a friend to all yet to none. The corridors are his ramp and the pantry his greenroom. He's not just a helping hand, he's an adversity manager in real life. From the sunrise to the sunset, his crazy energy is unmatched and always high. A day on campus without seeing Jeetu bhaiya feels incomplete. He celebrates life, and radiates positivity wherever he is.

FOR KALURAM JI

He's the feeding hand of the university. The one stop solution to all hunger breaks, Kaluram Ji makes the canteen lively. Every short break between classes leads to the stairs up to the canteen. Maintaining chaos is his forte, and he's an expert in it. Chatting to him while waiting for the food or him just making silly remarks to make you laugh, it's a constant in the campus life. He doesn't treat you like any other customer, but tries to make you feel homely. Just a small chat with him makes you feel warm. With his 'cup of tea' (or coffee) in our minds, he'll always be in our hearts and cravings.

FOR KHAN SAAB

The first face that greets you when you enter the campus. He guards the premises like a soldier day in and out. He resonates the feeling of safety and security, for all those who are at this side of the gate. Khan Saab is a buddy to all the students, a well wisher to all. Small talks with him don't feel awkward but endearing. His aura is one which makes a gloomy day hopeful. A flag bearer of rules and regulations in the institution, he's a caring soul who puts others before himself.

The internet defines their breed as 'Man's Best Friend!'

For all hostellers, perhaps, they are more than that. He was raised as a pup by the boys and girls at campus feasting on the delish of the mess shop.

His favourite? You can't say. His dislikes? Never ever pet another stray in front of him. His core competency? Barking and chasing all cars commuting inside the campus gates; without ANY exceptions. His USP? The endless tantrums.

Science says that having animals around allows for a better mental state. I believe I speak for all when I say that Sheru has been much much more than that.

The overtly obvious cuddle requests, helping his own self to come along with us on our 5 AM winter walks and hikes, he is perhaps undividedly the celebrity of the campus.

In recent times, he has introduced us to Mango and their two beautiful pups. Together, they are a sweet concoction with tiny bits of chaos here and there.

As the day comes closer for us to vacate our rooms, pack our backpacks and move on to our own divergent paths in life, this gentle regal giant and his family would always stay close to our hearts - For a place that has been a home away from home, a friend away from one.

Adieu.◆

A SHORT STORY ON

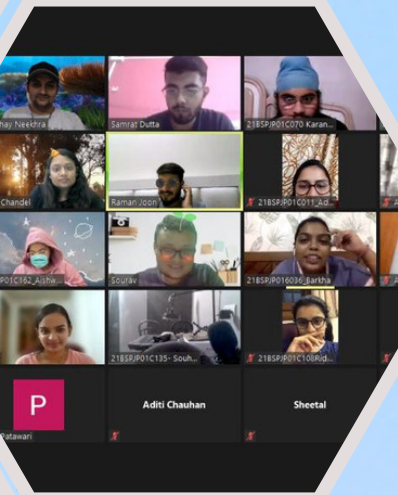

SHERU

MANGO

Wall of Memories

To the 96 that wrote the latest chapter of the Pink City Campus

Our resident pastry chef. Loud-mouthed and spreading positivity, although from the east, her allegiance now lies in the south. Her biggest worry - Having two A's in her name makes her the first person in any and every assignment.

Aakriti Gupta - C001

Her go-to things include only two things - 1. Headphones and Music, 2. Samiksha Solanki.

Aashika Vijay - C003

Late to the party, her dancing skills are offlate the talk of the campus.

Aastha - C004

Bringing the vibrance of the northern most state of Nation, he, at least at campus is the definition of introvert. Outside campus, its a different affair.

Abhay Singh Charak - C005

The custodian of the coveted 007 enrollment number, his prowess lies on the sports ground. A quick learner, his service in volleyball (and the following taunt) are never to be missed.

Abhishek Kumar Roy - C007

A typical Delhiite with the immaculate swag and style. His only drawback, there is cent percent chance that he'd forget what your name is!

Abhishek Mishra - C008

A nationals tennis player, she defines shyness. But when she leads a team, she is authority absolute.

Aditi Shreya - C011

Haphazard and total chaos - that's her way of work and she never fails to deliver and outperform.

Aishwarya More - C016

Student Yearbook

As the Class of 2023 move on from academia to the industry, the editorial takes this space to commemorate them on the completion of their MBA program

The life of the party, she soon might officially change her name to 'Sundar Akancha'.

Akancha - C017

His affirmative nods are perhaps the most reassuring thing to any team. An engineering graduate who exhibited an immense flair and talent for finance, often staying ahead of the curve.

Akash Chame - C018

Our Banker-in-chief. Our Pixel Buzz. He might be 5 minutes late to the lecture theatre, but once he is there, he is undoubtedly the spotlight.

Akshay Neekhra - C019

A techie who turned out to be the dark horse. The earth needs to move for us to get things out of him, but once his mouth opens, he turns into a walking encyclopedia.

Aniket Supekar - C024

An orator at par with the best and a team player like no other, she is surely to be a future stalwart in the domain of HR. A secret about her - Her tears are on stand-by mode 24*7.

Anupama Mishra - C028

Usually found twinning with Ritika, she stays to herself. Her radiant smile coupled with a strong grin alerts everybody to acknowledge her but not to engage in any small talk! She finds it useless.

Aradhya Sharma - C029

The captain of IBS-PG Volleyball, his affinity to COVID norms and protein are unshakeable.

Arpit Pandey - C030

The coolest dude in town. End of story.

Ashwini Yadav - C032

Representing Odisha, Bikram brings with him an inquisitive like no other. His questions are on point and never fails to bring a dimension that no one else has even fathomed.

Bikram Jha - C040

A personality who defines that typical breed of backbenchers who can ace his way through any and everything.

Ayush Sinha - C034

Shy and Meek - do not fall for that! You cannot win a conversation with her.

Ayushi Soni - C035

Just sit in a group discussion with her and you'll see how deep her knowledge rabbit hole goes.

Basundra Bagal - C037

Carefree and wild, with an effervescent knack to bring innovative excuses to miss lectures.

Barkha Maurya - C036

The striker of IBS-PG Football. That's it. I'll leave you all to imagine the fame and craze that follows him.

Devang Jain - C043

A make-up artist in her spare time, she can light up any moment with her effervescent smile.

Era Ratna - C047

An entrepreneur, this guy has gobbled up all basics of finance and business keenly. His proficiency in conducting business - second to none.

Govind Sharma - C051

A meek faint smile always follows him around. His laurels rest in the reports of our placement team.

Hritik Jain - C055

Beauty with brains never had a better analogy.

Ishika Agarwal - C059

Representing the diversity from the South, Tulasi is as free as the clear blue that graces the skies.

K Tulasi Rao - C065

Never a 'No' in her say, never a defeat in her stance. She leaves the program being the most successful club administrator all the while being in more than one place at one time.

Jinisha Jain - C062

A go-getter, he'd always be among to first to register for any event (may that be in his forte or not). His inspiration? Bhangra and Kathi Rolls.

Karandeep Singh Bhalla - C070

She never speaks much. She is territorial when it comes to that. Once you are in her territory, she does not stop speaking.

Muskan Jain - C082

Apart from bagging one of the coveted placement slots, this guy has his hand in everything. An expert negotiator, a more than able goalkeeper, perhaps the best of them all, he is the closest thing to King James that we have at campus.

Nihar Chadda - C087

If positivity and 'come-what-may' had a face, it would be this.

Nitesh Singh - C089

We thought of her as someone else during our online sessions, she turned out to be even more glee in-person!

Komal Vyas - C073

An astute sense of responsibility. That's her!

Komal Khandelwal - C075

Let's be very honest here, IBS PG would not have participated in any sport (women) had it not been for her. Also, the delicacies she concocts are ones to die for.

Mahima Joshi - C077

The flag-bearer of the state of Rajasthan.

Mandakini Gupta - C078

If you see through his eyes, you'd see money in everything!

Mit Mangukiya - C080

Introvert to the core, he selects very ardently before opening up!

Nitin Kumar Saini - C090

Academically, she had made all finance courses her own. No one got even close to her.

Niyati Gupta - C091

Crypto, NFTs, Core Gaming, Stock Markets - that should be enough to say about the man.

Omkar Supekar - C092

Computers are his thing. Period. His SQL, Python skills run at the same time as the lectures do. His marks do not flicker even a bit!

P V Sujith Kumar - C093

In all probability, the strongest GD-PI acumen at campus.

Parth Upadhyay - C094

PBS, he has got mad calculation skills.

Parth Shah - C095

Our resident 'Jugaadu'. Anything off track and needs a quick fix, he is our go-to man.

Piyush Patawari - C097

When she is not setting the stage on fire with her dancing prowess, she is the one of the most attentive faces in the lectures.

Pooja Chauhan - C098

He knows everyone, literally every single person at campus. Singly handedly familiarizing everyone to the word 'Bro' is possibly his biggest achievement.

Prathamesh Jagtap - C101

The living illustration of "Never let your inner child die". His jolly-ness will make your gloomy day smile.

Raman Joon - C107

Someone who's arrival was much awaited!! The source of entertainment from the virtual lecture days, she made friends without even meeting in person.

Ridhima Soni - C108

A happy face, ever smiling. She's a gleeful woman, making friends with all.

Riya Mishra - C109

The glamour queen, she can talk her way out of any situation.

Priyodarshini Roy - C104

A silent person, his acumen speaks for him. He's someone who won't bother you, having small talk at times.

Sahil Rana - C111

He came as a surprise!!! His delayed arrival was a source for all curiosity, and caught everyone off guard.

Sai Teja Boya - C112

You cannot win a debate with her!! Witty and punny, spending time with her is a mood-booster for sure.

Samiksha Solanki - C116

The first person to seek constructive feedback and work on it.

Sanskar Agarwal - C119

His love for finance is perhaps a bit more than his love for bikes.

Satyam Kr. Shahi - C120

"Humari choriyan choron se kam hai ke!!" Fearless, bold and dynamic are the adjectives that describe her.

Sheetal Yadav - C124

If gentleman had a face, it would be his!

Shubham Harwande - C128

If consistency had a face, hers would definitely be in the line. You're sure to find a friend in her.

Smriti Saxena - C132

Just like her name, she believes in spreading affection. Not everyone's 'cup of tea', but to her buddies, a special pal is she!!

Sneha Singh - C134

A mysterious persona, with charm to extend, he is a person who disapproves counsel, yet doesn't shy away from giving one.

Souham Shinde - C135

As cool as his name is, his accent and voice is cooler!

Tanishq Harrison - C140

The synonym to command, he is the one everyone looks up to. Having his knack in adversity management, he looks beyond the usual and fancies envisioning.

Tathagat Bera - C142

A chirpy, sweet girl, going back and forth between the academic block and the hostel. She's fun loving and a good friend.

Tripti Sharma - C143

Somewhat of an unknown entity, she's most often twinning with Manali.

Supriya More - C139

The type of student who's quiet in the classroom and over energetic at the ground. She's the same person with or without the glasses.

Vandana Kumari - C146

Brothers-in-arms with his bestie Yogendra, he personifies poker-face.

Yogendra Singh - C149

Never inconsistent with his lack of expressions, do not fall for the gazes, he is a finance wizard.

Yaduman Singh Rathore - C152

He's the person who's friends with all. A relaxed person, he's sure to have a picture with you. The Brother.

Yugansh Baradia - C153

Complimentary to Aradhya, their pair is the talk of the class. She's the calm one amongst these hot and cold.

Ritika Soni - C156

The quietest in the room until there is an ongoing GD. He chooses to ace when he wants to!

Mohammad Kadir - C157

Packed with cheerfulness, she spreads light all over (quite literally). You'll always find her with a smile on her face; if not, something's off!

Naina Sharma - C158

Vice-Capt. of IBS-PG Cricket, his love for the game trumps everything else.

Nipesh Bisht - C160

Bamboozled to see this management scholar? Well, bid your doubts adieu coz he is sure to surprise you with his warm nature and zesty actions!!

Aditya Choudhary - C161

Entrustment coupled with dedication leads to a victorious onus. She puts her charge before everything else, as one cannot replace excellence with mediocrity.

Aishwarya Rajwani - C162

With her around, it's literally 'Muskan' everywhere! But think twice before riding pillion in her bike!

Muskan Mandhyan - C163

If there is work at stake, if it falls in his domain, tell him and consider it done.

Rohan Borde - C166

She's sharp!! This lady is both sugar and spice, extremes yet complementary; meet her, you'll get it.

Aditi Chauhan - C168

Sports is his first love, followed by captaincy. Reckless and casual, he's sure to give you some adequate counsel.

Sippu Kumar - C170

An artist by heart, she truly embodies her profession. She's carefree, radiant and sassy, a full package!!

Vaishnavi Jaiswal - C171

Her giggles and laughter cannot be ignored. She will always greet you with a smile, and if lucky, followed by a gossip.

Akshita Jain - C172

An old soul in IBS, he's been in the campus for almost half a decade now. Also, a later realised fact, he's a Malayali (the lesser utilised opportunity)!!

Asif Jamal - C173

The braces hide a beautiful smile, the conversation barriers hide a wonderful and kind soul.

Manali Pawar - C174

"Chota packet bada dhamaka!!" Her name has been mispronounced plenty of times. A delightful individual, she's always positive, and reflecting the same.

Praneeti Singla - C175

Our resident backbencher who'd surely surprise all with his knack of learning offbeat topics.

Vishal Bhatt - C176

Meeting her is like receiving a warm hug!! You'll have exciting chats with her, time will pass in a jiffy.

Palak Rastogi - C180

This fellow personifies Devotion!! A believer who is persistent in learning, gaining knowledge from anywhere and everywhere.

Mohit Shukla - C182

He's lively, he's breezy, he's jaunty. Playful in character, you'll enjoy conversing with him.

Aman Banka - C183

A localite from Jaipur, he literally travels miles to reach the university!! His friendly gestures will make you twinkle.

Priyam Sharma - C186

Unpredictable!!! He appears like a blue moon, but shines like the Pole Star. Get all the time you have with him, it'll be positively engaging.

Jacob Johnson - C190

A little confused, he'll give you a big "Hi!!" whenever meeting. Not an expert with comebacks, he's a good person by heart.

Kunnal Chhabra - C191

She's the campus 'Contest Queen'!! A believer, an experimenter and an entrepreneur, her social media content is overwhelming.

Shweta Srivastava - C192

Her queries never end!! She takes the cake in bad timing; she's not a smooth attendee, but the limelight wherever in the class.

Prasidhi Somani - C194

Simply Scribbling Away.....

Always seeing the dark humour in any and everything, his puns would go above your head! If he loves anything more than Sarabhai v. Sarabhai, it would be Taylor Swift.

Sourav Chauhan - C185

The Designing Queen.... Ideas come to her like a hot coffee on a chilly winter morning! Speaking of coffee, have her make you one and you'd say, 'Starbucks who?'

Sakshi Chandel - C113

A soccer buff, he puts the 'me' in 'game'. He's sure to astound you with his grandiloquent vocab; undeniably if you're already looking for the meaning of the hence mentioned words.

Samrat Dutta - C117

For the 'Squad

In Fond Rememberance

The Gods weren't kind to us when they took you away a bit too early.

We remember you and will do so forever.

THE SUPREME POWER: TRANSPOSE

Since the Big-Bang, one sermon remains constant, 'Change is Inevitable'.

In the more recent world settings, this change has accelerated multi-fold. There has always been a tussle among nations to become the supreme power. This loop is endless; as history accounts for all usurpers in the books of time.

The powerful empires are predominantly created by a leading factor called Reserve Currency. To understand in a layperson's view, a Reserve Currency stands absolute in worldwide trades and as a store of value in foreign exchange reserves. Of the varied list of factors contributing to a new world power to brew a few are well recognized to be technology, economic output, military strength, world trade, finances, and so forth. These factors show a cause-and-effect relationship where each one of them leads to the betterment of the other.

To understand the cycle and pattern of how a country emerges as a leading nation in the world, let's travel back a few centuries. The Dutch started becoming a world power in the 16th century when they enhanced education, economic output, and technology. Through ground breaking efficiency in use of technology, they perfected one of the most important inventions of mankind – The Ship. They used this latest iteration to travel and explore the world to discover new riches. Thus, the rise and the prosperity of this miniscule nation. Their military prowess lent them an upper hand over everyone else; in management terms – 'The Differentiating Moat'.

But, as they say, it's easier to get to the top, the real test lies in retaining the place at the zenith. For the Dutch, the pitfall came in the form of a financial crisis owing to the overdue neglect of the disproportionate wealth distribution amongst its citizens. Printing more money with no account of their reserves coupled with long drawn civil wars created the perfect concoction for the descent, both in the value of The Dutch Guilder and the iron fisted rule. All the while waiting to pounce on the opportunity were the nations that recognized themselves as the United Kingdom, the Sterling and Pound, ready to make their move on the chess board of time.

This rather cruel cycle has mimicked countless times throughout the centuries with its latest iteration putting the United States of America at the helm. Countless technological advancements, unparalleled military power, diplomatic relations - of levels unseen before all contributed extensively in making the Dollar irreplaceable in being the metric to measure world trade. 'The Land of the Free and Brave' took its oath as the 'The Leader of the Free World' and with more fancy jargons, the projections were in stark dissolution to reality. Being someone, outside of the hive, I bank my assessments through multiple reports that often do not get to see the limelight. Moving on from personal views, a new power always gives rise to new competitions.

Since the Cold War, that mantle belonged to the erstwhile USSR, as the world saw them as the only answer to the sheer brute force of the USA. In more recent times, that outlook has taken a shift in favour of Russia's southern neighbours and the BRICs and the G20s of the world.

Is America's secret finally out? Or is it the fact that nations started taking cognizance into restructuring internally to strengthen its reserve instead of focusing on the packaging to entice their allies!

There is no one answer to these questions, there have been anomalies that have rattled the course of history by chartering an alternate path.

The New World Order is at stake and there are many out there to claim this illusive mantle.

In hindsight, I feel so elated in being able to complete my post-graduation program before the advent of COVID. Saying that I have lived my hostel days to its fullest would be a gross understatement. The last enchilada of education before moving into the corporate was a life altering experience for myself.

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

The infrastructure, the hand-holding, the teaching methodologies, the people - indeed IBS Jaipur is a personification of a home away from home. To begin with, the case-based learning system coupled with the continual semester assessments that not only included scholarly work, but also the element of skill set improvement was a major factor contributing in a holistic growth.

State-of-the-art amenities played a major role in my overall development; may that be a fully stacked library, theatre style lecture halls, sports facilities promoting a plethora of indoor as well as outdoor activities or the hostel spaces, food and nutrition; all accumulate to provide the dexterity that is hard to replicate.

You need to be content with small steps. That's all-what life is. Small steps that you take every day so when you look back down the road it all adds up and you know you covered some distances

- Katie Kacvinsky

Life always has its own way to surprise you as an individual in more manners than one. These surprises always stand the test of time. My life was normal until & unless I decided something for myself which not only adds on to my skill set but in hindsight, has also made me an independent individual who feels those butterflies upon achieving set goals.

Before giving a brief overlay about my journey and experience with The ICFAI Group, I would take this opportunity to thank God, my parents, my gurus, my friends, my foes and every single person who has played a role, no matter the intricacy, in bringing me to this point in life.

My journey under the umbrella of ICFAI started at IBS Jaipur, a constituent of ICFAI University, Jaipur. The study methodology and pedagogy worked in tandem with regular interactions with industry stalwarts facilitated by faculty mentors, who truly are more than magnanimous in their quest to enable the budding managers under their tutelage.

In all honesty, without such assistance I would not have been able to discover my fondness and prowess in the domain of Human Resources. Placements, although not a cakewalk, was indeed a pleasant experience overall.

All that I'm achieving in my career is because of my learnings from this place. If I wish to summarize my two years at IBS, the quote "Hard work is an individual role, growing them is our responsibility", would be a befitting one.

DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION OF STREET VENDORS - REGIONAL CONSULTATION

With the aim to develop a framework for facilitating digital transformation of street vendors, an expert team from The Centre of Excellence for Digital Transformation (CEDT) at IFHE, Hyderabad in collaboration with Friedrich Ebert Stiftung (FES) chose ICFAI Business School, Jaipur to pilot a live project titled 'Digital Street Project'.

The management scholars at campus seized the opportunity by volunteering to be the ones spearheading the project as the frontline workforce.

Having understood modalities and primary research requirements, twelve teams with four members each spread across the pink city to gather data touch points from a diverse set of population; with the clear aim to make the sample as heterogeneous as it can be. With the first step been completed in a little over a week, the project stalwarts consisting of the team from FES led by Ms Mandvi Kulsheshtra, Program Advisor, Economy of Tomorrow, FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG - INDIA and an expert panel from IFHE led by Dr A V Vedpuriswar, Senior Advisor, ICFAI Group landed at Jaipur with the goal to learn the research outcomes first hand by inviting the interviewed vendors to campus for a detailed discussion on Day 1 followed by an in-depth analysis of the sample at their point of sales on Day 2.

For the scholars overseeing the event proceedings for the entire Jaipur chapter, the learning curve has been nothing short of extraordinary.

We take cognizance of the tireless efforts of every single stakeholder and their Prowess in this triumph.

FORZA - THE ANNUAL INTER- DEPARTMENTAL SPORTS MEET

As the winter sun rises, clearing out the dew from the grass, the wet scent of the earth is an intimation to all students at campus to let go of inter-department friendships and bonds for a week; for all know that it's time for the Annual Inter-Department Sports Meet.

FORZA '22

A four-day spectacle bringing out the best of discipline, comradery and well-mannered rivalries among the students of ICFAI School of Liberal Arts (ISLA), ICFAITech (Faculty of Science & Technology), ICFAI Law School (ILS) and ICFAI Business School (IBS).

Spearheaded by Harriers, the University Sports Club under the able guidance of Dr Vishnu Chaudhary, Forza involves departmental teams fighting it out for the bragging rights of the next year across indoor and outdoor events with individual honor as well as team merits up for grabs.

Supporting a state-of-the-art academic curriculum, these four days remind us each year how the mantle of sports imbibe the competitive spirit, team management and adversity management skills of the budding managerial scholars at campus.

Digital Marketing Workshop

A brain child of Dr Vidhu K. Mathur and Dr Shiv Kumar, this initiative was given fruition by Market Mavens - The Marketing Club and Techno - The Digital Enablement Club, ICFAI Business School, Jaipur played host to forty participants from eighteen MSMEs' based out of the Pink City and adjoining areas with the aim to be the stepping stones for these micro businesses to expand digitally.

Under the tutelage of expert trainer, Mr. Abhay Ranjan and his team, these business administrators learned the importance and usage of digital tools such as Google AdWords, CANVA and many more. Spread across three sessions, the event received widespread acclaim and praise for its immersive learning and overwhelming hospitality.

HomeComing '22

Alumni Meet

Autumn's inept comfort and the falling of the leaves attest to those who have called this place their home at a moment in time gone by; ergo the bleak glimmer in the eyes, maybe a drop or two reminiscing the memories that live on.

On one such pleasant day in September 2022, a stronghold of hundred from the 62000+ army of The IBS Alumni Federation (IBSAF) gathered at the Holiday Inn, Jaipur to commemorate the day and remind us once again of the expansive command and foothold that this elusive brand holds dear to itself.

Courteous frivolities were the mainstay of the evening alongside performances by the student team tasked with the fruitful implementation of the event plenary.

The genteel conversations and networking all throughout was a sight to savour with the 'Nostalgia' being the word of the day.

HR Conclave '22

RE-IMAGINNERING HR: FUTURE OF WORK & WORKPLACES

You can't spell 'HERO' without HR. A gathering of HR Veterans, Academicians, Corporate Professionals, Research Scholars and HR Aspirants, this conclave aimed at bringing together experts from various sectors to brainstorm and discuss the crucial role HR plays in shaping the future of work and workplaces.

The substance of the event was "Re-Imagineering HR: Future of Work & Workplaces". After a rewarding day of knowledge-sharing, prospecting-gaining and above all experience-enriching sessions, every attendee had the glory of this every needed, ever changing domain on their lips and minds.

DIWALI MEET '22

Lights, music, food, dance and vibrance all over. The festival of lights was illuminated with smiles brighter than the stars. The day started with art and concluded with heart.

Taking the Front Lawns as premise, the institution worked their sweat off to make things happen the planned way. Food stalls with their deliciousness and craft stalls with their flair attracted a large number of students. The gathering brought together students and faculty members from all the four schools of the university. Be it the Best Attire or the Toran-making, the learners put their best foot forward in all competitions.

Songs were sung, dance was done.
Laughs were laughed, the day was fun!!

Everything captured in memories (and camera of course), the event was a celebration of kinship, compassion, gaiety and content. In this day and age of social media, there was an evening of being social, me, and diya. A festival away from home, yet closer to soul.

Celebrating Diversity!!

Ganeshotsav '22

"Ganpati Bappa Morya!!!"

The campus echoed with these words for five constant days. A divine energy flowed through the corridors when Lord Ganesha was in the institution. The unhinged devotion and sentiment not only was the juice to the soul but also to the body. Be it praying in the aartis or just sitting besides the deity, the scholars acted like guards day in and out. The 'Akhand Deep' didn't flicker even once for it was not only fueled by ghee, but allegiance.

The institution witnessed camaraderie and teamwork, giving lessons of management in real life. We welcomed 'Ekdant' with broad smiles and cheers, and bid adieu with their blessings and hope. A break from the classes did not lead to the canteen, it lead to F-106, the place where Bappa was seated. The passing days brought in both glory and glum, for moving towards the end isn't easy. Reminiscing these days always brings up a smile on the face and the lord's benediction in the hearts.

Staying true to the diversity that our great Nation holds so dear to her, the campus grounds have always been inclusive of all cultures and ethnicities.

Navrang, the club entrusted with the task to spread positivity via cultural inclusivity, came up with its magnus opus, Dahi-Handi.

Professing the importance of Krishna, the day began with an enticing dance performance by the boys and girls to the tune of songs that sought blessings from the heavens above.

The main attraction of the event was the competition between the departments to rip apart the handi strung 20 feet in the air. For the females, there were pinatas arranged with a similar format.

The team showed extraordinary comradery throughout the event, all the while adhering to the codes and norms mandated by compliance and demanded by civility.

Onam Celebrations

The ICFAI Business School, Jaipur is known for its diversity and inclusion. With students from more than 20 states, it is the reflection of the multifariousness this nation has. Scholars here may be far from home, but the institution tries its best to make them feel like home.

Following the same, the Navrang Club organised an event to celebrate Onam. The entire campus was shining with the colours of white and golden shades. Fragrant with the smell of various flowers, the day had different competition and games. Be it the Floral Rangoli Competition or the Pot Breaking game 'Uriyadi' or the Tug of War 'Vadam Vali', every game projected excitement and enthusiasm. The amalgamation of people from varied cultures and traditions seemed to fade away and all that was seen was friendship and endearment.

The Joy of GIVING BACK!

Community Outreach
Program

As social beings at the top of the value chain on the planet, we, humans bring with us the understanding of emotions and values like no other.

Imbibing this spirit to the fullest, the CSR Club of IBS Jaipur conducted a day-long outreach program at Apna Ghar Ashram, an old age home for women. It was a fun-filled affair with the residents enjoying the day to their fullest and scholars learning intrinsic values second to none.

The editorial takes immense pride and joy to announce the flag-bearers of IBS Jaipur to the entire fraternity. Here's wishing them the best of health and luck for their endeavors throughout the remainder of their journey at campus and even beyond.

Academic Year 2023-2024

DEEVI KRISHNA KARTHIK PRESIDENT

A techie on a hiatus from a tech giant, a man with immense humility, Mr Karthik has exhibited skills that are rare even in the best of leaders. Two things you will never get from the 'fellow' (a reference from his vocab):

- Never without a 'Smile'
- Never a 'No'

AMAN JASWAL VICE PRESIDENT

RAJSHREE CHAUHAN SECRETARY

A content curator by profession, six months was all it took for him to showcase his deep insights in negotiation and convincing skills. Taking up the mantle of our resident 'Jugaadu', presenting the second to our general-in-chief.

A people lover, albeit a would be super-strong resource in HR, she loves two things.

- People
- More People

The student with arguably the strongest spirit and commitment to IBS, she'd Taylor Swift her way working 24*7 without breaking a sweat. Tears? That's a different proposition altogether.

YOUTH VIBES

Bienvenidos....

Quizzing, a passion fueled by the taste of those whose thirst for knowledge is unquenchable, has indeed been there since time immemorial.

The Pink City Campus took its deep dive into this endless loop of learning by announcing the fourteenth club to the student council body.

Under the administration of two of the most vibrant students from the Class of 2024, Cognizance seeks to intake, imbibe and impart expertise not only from the point of view to probe new learning but also to assist the student fraternity from the perspective of placements and SIPs.

Carrying the sigil of blue and white, this club perhaps had the coolest launch and has successfully been a driving force in spearheading the HR Conclave '22 taking care of the expert panel profiling hand-in-hand with the synchRonize - The Human Resources Club at campus.

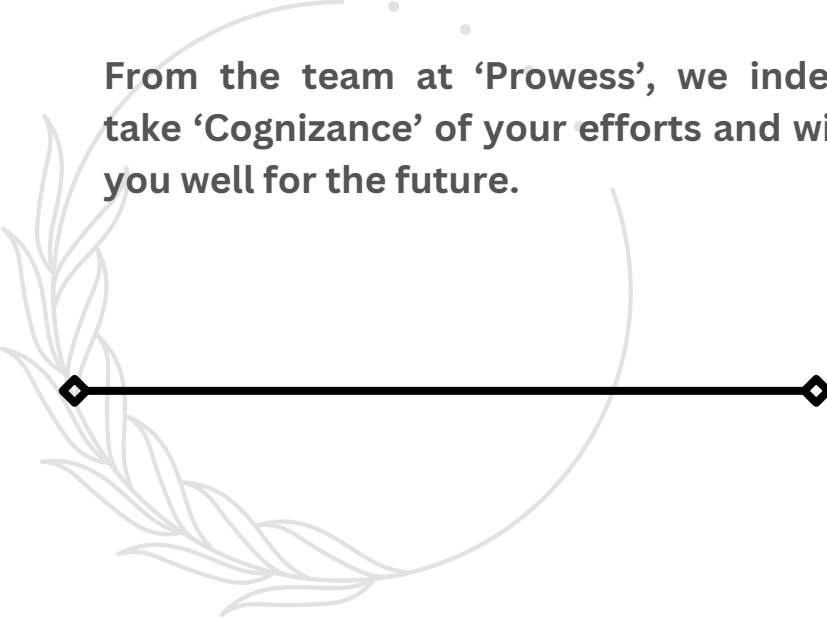

From the team at 'Prowess', we indeed take 'Cognizance' of your efforts and wish you well for the future.

Bienvenidos....

A pilot club re-envisioned by the entrepreneurship enthusiasts under the visionary guidance of the President of ICFAI University, Jaipur has finally woken up to its call.

With the control in the hands of a proper chef (perhaps the best kept food secret at campus) and a dynamic mumbaikar who has his own business, we believe that the sleeping giant will finally rise.

The club, having all its documentation processes complete, will be fully operational from the scholastic year 2023-24.

Kudos to you,
peeps!

An Ambitious Leap

CORPORATE MENTORSHIP

In a one of its kind gesticulation, the council body leaped ahead to further strengthen the arc between academia and industry by inviting corporate leaders who have long been associated with the institution to formally take up advisory roles to mentor the students and set us forth on the path to autonomy; thereby living up to call of Empowerment, Entrustment and Enablement.

This pilot project is being spearheaded by the stalwart clubs that over the years have a proven track record of nothing less than immaculate success.

Communiqua - The Language Club partnered up with Ms. Vijetha Shenoy, Senior Manager - People Experience, Innovacer.

A sweetheart of a lady with the vivid imagination and grit of a poet, Ma'am brings her repertoire of skills that include agile work environment and people management to name a few.

Honed and trained from the best of all places, all the while in taking the vibe of a city renowned for its intellect and passion for things beyond the ordinary, we take pride in announcing this new allegiance to the world.

Techno - The Digital Enablement Club partnered up with Mr. Hitesh Gulati - Founder, DiversityAce Business Consulting.

Operating out of the plains of Chandigarh, Mr. Gulati is our resident partner-in-crime. With his witty intellect and immense skill set engulfing HR transformation and Change Management, Sir takes charge of the club that aims to make digital evolution lightning ready. His differentiating moat?

Just ask the boys at PG Hostel or the T&D scholars, they'd say they never knew something as basic as excel had so much to offer.

With an unlimited learning curve lying ahead, the 'Prowess' editorial has two words for you Sir, "Go Live!".

Money Matrix - The Financial Markets Club partnered up with Mr. Bharat Sharma - Founder and CEO, Stocknerv.

Simplicity trumps everything!

With this war cry, Sir comes to lead the team of stock-bizzes at campus. Having earlier been a guest lecturer for a Sem III course in Finance, we all are well aware of his pedigree.

His best till date with us - Listening to explanatory answers at class, nodding in assurance and pronouncing the answer wrong! But, the encouragement is endless and the zeal to learn is meshed with a resolve stronger than steel.

synCHRonize - The Human Resources Club partnered up with Mr. Dhurbajyoti Majumdar - HR Manager (East), L&T Constructions Ltd.

A personnel assessment expert accredited by the best of bodies, Sir is a thoroughbred professional with a career spanning almost two decades.

A patron of learning, Sir assists numerous B-Schools in setting up their assessment procedures also delivering sermons of the domain that has been learnt at IIM-C and polished by a suite of bonafide degrees ever since.

‘Dada’ may be a word that evokes an unparalleled emotion in the cricketing world, but within these walls the word belongs to him.

Afterall, the City of Joy radiates differently.

Cognizance - The Quizzing Club partnered up with Asst. Commandant, Dhakshina Varadarajan (Retd.), Facilities Global Physical Security Operations Centre Lead, Pegasystems Worldwide

A former Anti-terrorism and Counter-Insurgency officer, later on a tactical weapons officer in the Indian Navy, Sir is an alumnus from IBS who has practiced his craft as an expert in organizational development, diagnosis and intervention.

With his flexible, yet rigid approach, quizzing is the perfect puzzle block that is yet to don his repertoire, with his in'quiz'ziteness lying at the bedrock!

RESEARCH MOU SIGNED BETWEEN THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, JAIPUR AND CENTRE FOR DEVELOPMENT COMMUNICATION, JAIPUR ON SEPTEMBER 19, 2022

Faculty Development Program

ICFAI, throughout its storied history has always imbibed a culture where all stakeholders believe in giving back to the society; may that be the academia or industry.

Faculty Development Programs allow like-minded people to engage and intake intellectual capital from resources who have expertise in specific domains.

With a similar notion, IBS Jaipur conducted a five day online FDP from October 10 through October 15 on the following touch bases -

- ➡ Research ideas for problem-solving at Micro & Macro level
- ➡ Discussion on Research Process
- ➡ Descriptive Statistics
- ➡ Statistical Inferences: Estimation and hypothesis testing for one sample and two samples
- ➡ Analysis of Variance
- ➡ Correlation and Linear Regression
- ➡ Analysis of Categorical Data: Chi-Square Goodness of Fit Test
- ➡ Wilcoxon Matched-Pairs Signed Rank Test & Run Test
- ➡ Mann-Whitney U Test & Kruskal-Wallis Test: Analysis of Variance by Ranks

The event garnered widespread applause amongst the participants and audience that included professors and faculties of eminent institutions such as Michigan State University, JECRC University, Jaipur, Jiwaji University, Indian Institute of Health Management and Research (IIHMR) Jaipur, Dr. B.R Ambedkar PG College (Nimbehra), Christ University to name a few.

The test statistic for the Mann-Whitney U Test is derived U and is the smaller of U_1 and U_2 , defined below:

$$U_1 = n_1 p_{12} + \frac{n_1(n_1+1)}{2} - R_1$$

$$U_2 = n_2 p_{21} + \frac{n_2(n_2+1)}{2} - R_2$$

where R_1 = sum of the ranks for group 1 and R_2 = sum of the ranks for group 2.

For this example:

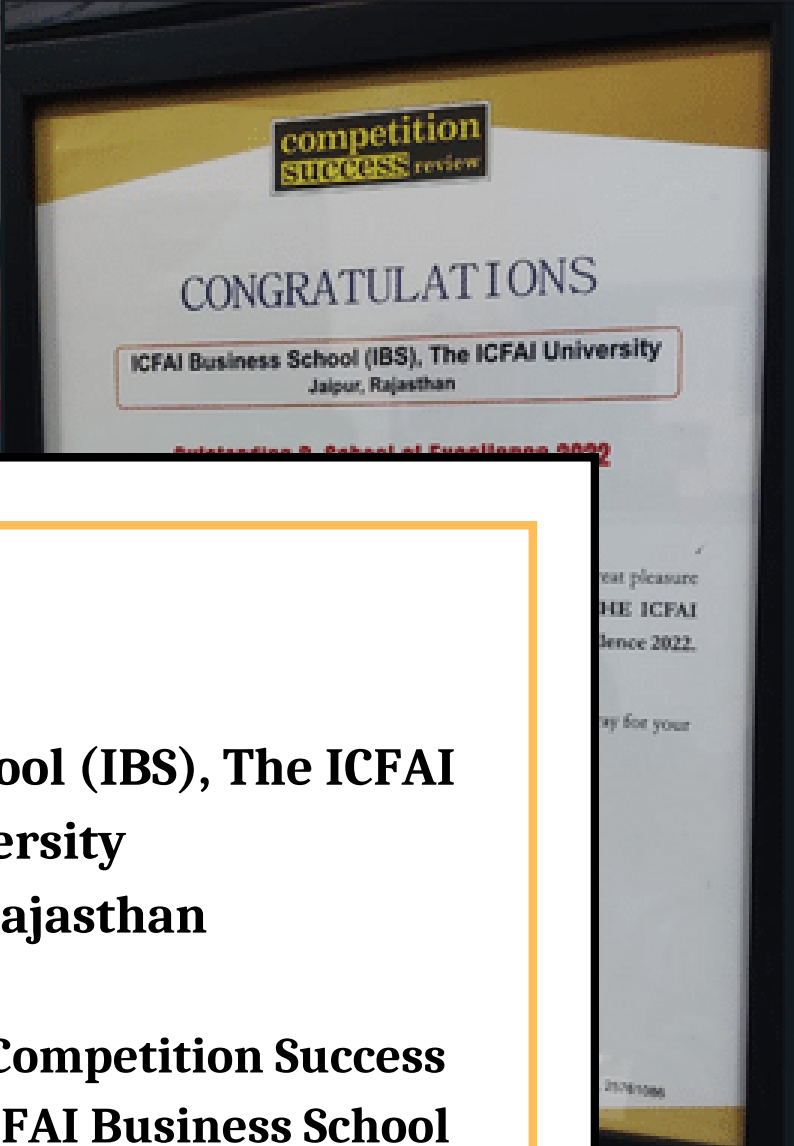

$$U_1 = 15(5) + \frac{15(15+1)}{2} - 37 = 1$$

$$U_2 = 11(5) + \frac{11(11+1)}{2} - 22 = 22$$

Now, we look to the critical values in the table with respect to n_1 and n_2 (take it U_0).

- If $U \leq U_0$: we reject the null hypothesis
- Else, we do not reject the null hypothesis
