Structure of the Introduction -Hour Glass Model & King Model (contl..)

Pitfalls	Recommendations
Too generic	Target journal and website and investigate the journal's readership
Citations are inadequate to support claims	Cite all statements challenged. If a claim it should be supported by one or more citations
The research aim is vague	Contains essential information: setting, population/sample, study design, timing, dependent variable, and independent variables

Body-Hour Glass Model & King Model (conti..)

Pitfalls
Describes methods for one study aim, or part of an aim.	Make sure the methods are complete, describe all aspects of the study
Justification for the methods used	Justify each approach and variable
